

What Makes Your New Home A Green Home?

Variable-speed Pump Motors

Radiant Roof Barrier Panels
(Throughout entire roof)

Lower utility bills
Improved appliance performance
Increased energy efficiency
Cooler in the summer, warmer in the winter

Tight Duct System

Increased comfort due to better air distribution
Improved indoor air quality
Less dust, pollen and other pollutants
Lower utility bills
Consistent comfort level throughout the home
Less drafts
Quieter home

Solarban 70XL Glass Windows

Low E glass
Dual paned windows
Warmer in the winter
Cooler in the summer
Comfortable abundant light
Fade protection

High Efficiency HVAC System

Increased comfort due to better operation
Improved indoor air quality
Lower utility bills
Consistent comfort level throughout the home
Variable Speed Pool Pump Motor
Lower utility bills
Quieter operating system

Solar Roof Panels

Lower utility bills
3.87 KW power

2 X 6 Framing

Most homes 2 X 4 framing
Extra 2" for deeper insulation
Stronger construction strength

CoolStar® Coated Roof Surface
(Complete roof coverage)

Exceeds Energy Star and Title 24 requirements
Reflects heat
Delivers a cooler more comfortable interior
Seals roof from rain leaks

Drought Tolerant Drip Irrigation Landscape System

Reduces water usage
Lower water bills
Reduces waste/run off
Reduces yard maintenance

Tankless Hot Water Heating System

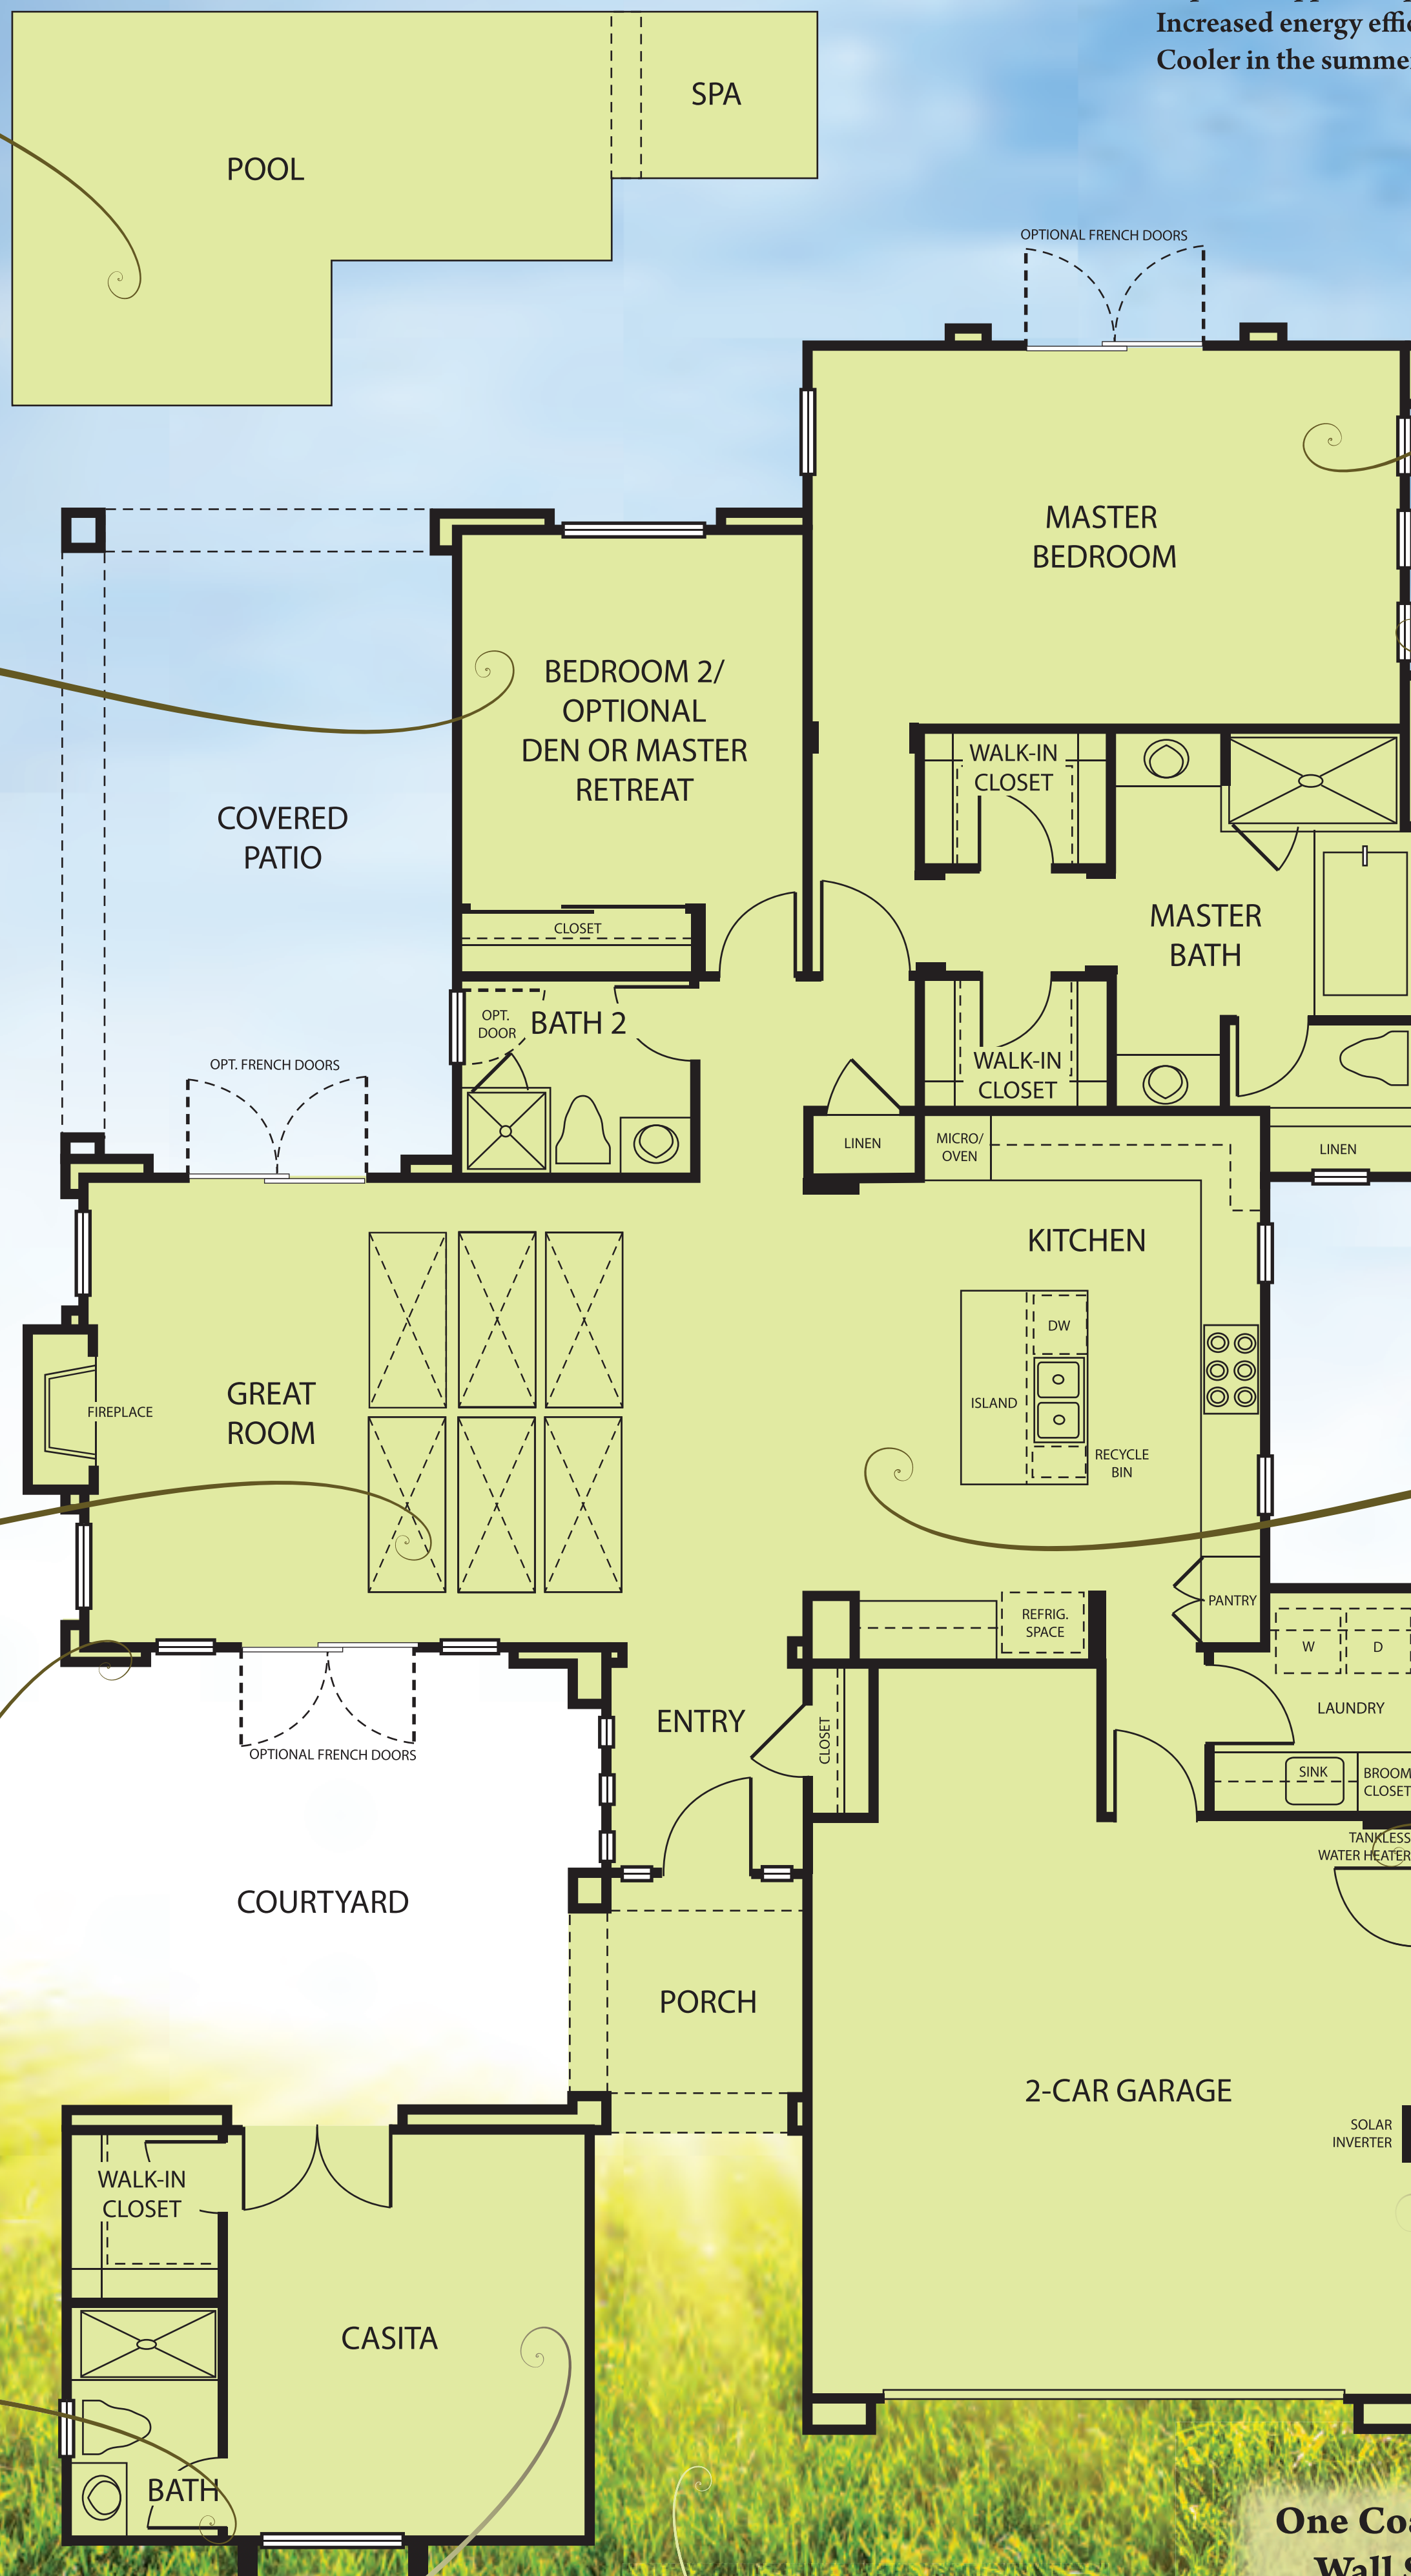

Constant hot water
Energy efficient design
Low cost operation
Compact size
Precise temperature control
Self diagnostic

One Coat Stucco Wall System

Will last for decades with little maintenance
Durable and impact resistant
Fire resistant
Improved energy efficiency
Fungus, rot and insect resistant
Helps increase R value

Far West Industries makes no representations or warranties with regard to any savings and actual comfort that a homebuyer may realize as a result of these or any other features included in your home. The energy saved and comfort experienced by each homeowner will vary depending upon many factors, including but not limited to, actual use by the homeowner, in addition to the care of the individual features and location of surrounding landscaping. Far West Industries reserves the right to change specifications, materials, and any or all features of the homes without prior notice.